PROMINENT CITIZENS OF MILBURN.

BILLS, WESLEY, farmer, son of John and Elizabeth, was born in Salt Lake City, March 6, 1850. His father came from Pennsylvania and mother from North Carolina. They came to Utah in '48 and located at Union Fort, south of Salt Lake City. In '57 they removed to Springville and about ten years later to Fairview, where Wesley was raised. In '78 he came to Milburn and settled on fifty-seven acres of school land. Is an earnest church worker and ward teacher; teacher and librarian in the Sunday-school. He took part in the Black Hawk war, doing his share of guarding, though only a boy. Was married in Fairview, May 23, 1869, to Sarah, daughter of John H. and Mary Wilcox, born in Manti, August 1, 1893. They have had twelve children: Wesley, Hazard, Mary E., James, Herbert, Charles, Clarissa and Janet, living; John H., Sarah G., Maude and Orange, deceased. "Hist. of Sanpete & Emery Cos."
